TIDEWATER VICE PRESIDENT, GIANNA RAHMANI, INAUGURATED AS PRESIDENT OF THE CAI CHESAPEAKE CHAPTER

Owings Mills, MD (December 19, 2016) – Gianna M. Rahmani, Vice President of The Tidewater Companies (<http://www.tidewaterproperty.com>) was officially inaugurated as President of the Community Associations Institute (CAI) Chesapeake Chapter on November 18, 2016. Gianna has been on the CAI Chesapeake Chapter Board of Directors since 2014 and has been elected President for the upcoming 2017 year.

“I am honored, excited, and ready to take on this role”, stated Gianna. “In addition to being on the CAI Board, I have taken lots of leadership and personal and professional development courses, as well as held various roles from student government to store, office, and business management, and from being on a condo board to the Montgomery County Commission on Common Ownership Communities.”

Gianna added, “I have a lot of people who helped me get here and I would like to acknowledge them. Always first is my husband Farhad, who has been my biggest supporter and motivator. Secondly, I would like to thank Stanley and Marc Greenberg and my Tidewater family. Thank you all for your support and encouragement. I would also like to recognize the dedicated staff of the Chesapeake Chapter, our hardworking committees, and our outstanding Board of Directors. I have big shoes to fill from our current president, Neil Alioto. I am incredibly fortunate to get to work with and learn from such amazing and dedicated individuals.”

Stanley Greenberg, President of The Tidewater Companies, stated, “Gianna always works extremely hard and strives to achieve her, and Tidewater’s, goals and push her limits. This makes her a huge asset to our company and now, she can use these same qualities to help reach new heights with the Chesapeake Chapter CAI. Marc and I and all of us at Tidewater are proud of her accomplishments and can’t wait to see what the New Year brings for her and the Chapter.”
